

Dear Friends,

While there is still snow on the ground here in south central PA, we are busy preparing for the Spring Conference of the PARBC. We will be meeting on April 28-29, at Hope Baptist Church in Hanover PA for our spring conference. Dr. Mike McCubbins from Los Angeles will be speaking on The Customs and Culture of the Jewish People. These two days will be a great time of spiritual blessing and encouraging fellowship.

The folks here at Hope are busy planning and looking forward to your arrival. We want to make your stay here a blessing to you and your church family. We want to encourage you to make your reservations at the hotels early and plan to enjoy the focus on the Word of God and encourage others with your fellowship.

We will have additional copies of the PARBC directories available at the conference as well as a book table for the books from Dr. Mike McCubbins.

If you would like a table to highlight a particular missionary, camp, or ministry, please call us at 717-633-1479 so that we can do our best to meet your needs. As with all conferences, the host pastor is the one who has the final say on who can host a table at the conference.

Finances: We will do our best to care for our speaker and the needs of the conference here at Hope. We are planning an evening meal on Monday, April 28 to allow for a time of fellowship between the afternoon and evening. We will have a dessert time after the meal and a game time as well to enable us to enjoy our time together. We are planning that the offering for the fellowship will be given entirely to the fellowship to be able to grow in our ministering one to another. Especially since we are looking for another State Representative, we believe this would be a good time to take an offering for the conference from your church and bring it to the conference.

We are looking forward to your coming and the blessing of the Lord on these two days.

Expectantly,

Allen G. Harris

Pastor
